PREFACE

Pesatnya perkembangan teknologi informasi dan komunikasi pada Abad 21 telah memosisikan bahasa Inggris sebagai salah satu bahasa utama dalam komunikasi antar bangsa dan pergaulan dunia. Kurikulum 2013 yang dirancang untuk menyongsong model pembelajaran Abad 21 menyadari pentingnya lulusan sekolah menengah atas menguasai bahasa Inggris untuk menyampaikan gagasan melebihi batas negara Indonesia serta untuk menyerap gagasan dari luar yang dapat dimanfaatkan untuk kemaslahatan bangsa dan negara.

Sejalan dengan peran tersebut, buku Bahasa Inggris untuk SMA/MA/SMK/MAK Kelas X ini bertujuan untuk membangun sikap, pengetahuan, dan keterampilan berkomunikasi siswa melalui pengalaman pembelajaran yang berbentuk beragam kegiatan berkomunikasi aktif, baik melalui kegiatan berbahasa Inggris yang bersifat reseptif maupun produktif. Hanya dengan terlibat aktif dalam kegiatan berkomunikasi, siswa dapat membangun sikap, pengetahuan, dan keterampilan berkomunikasi. Buku ini diharapkan mampu merealisasikan implementasi Kurikulum 2013 di dalam kelas bahasa Inggris karena isi dan pengalaman belajar yang dikembangkan dalam buku ini telah diupayakan agar dapat membantu siswa mencapai empat kompetensi inti (KI) dalam Kurikulum 2013.

Penyajian isi dan pengalaman belajar dalam buku ini merujuk pada pendekatan pembelajaran bahasa berbasis teks, baik lisan maupun tulis, dengan menggunakan bahasa Inggris sebagai sarana berkomunikasi. Dengan memahami fungsi sosial, struktur teks, dan fitur kebahasaan berbagai teks seperti yang diamanahkan oleh Standar Isi dalam Kurikulum 2013, siswa diharapkan mampu mengungkapkan gagasan, baik secara lisan maupun tulis, dengan mengikuti kaidah dan langkah retorika yang sesuai. Di samping itu, isi dan pengalaman belajar pada setiap bab dalam buku ini pada umumnya disusun dengan mengikuti tahapan yang sesuai dengan prinsip dasar belajar bahasa asing, yaitu tahap penyajian atau pemodelan (presentation), tahap pelatihan (practice), dan tahap penggunaan (production).

Ragam teks dalam buku ini disesuaikan dengan amanat kompetensi dasar dalam Kurikulum 2013 untuk Kelas X, yang meliputi teks fungsional pendek; esei berbentuk recount, narrative, dan descriptive; serta teks berbentuk percakapan (interactional texts) yang mencerminkan berbagai tindak tutur. Beragam teks tersebut disajikan melalui tema-tema yang berkaitan dengan fenomena alam dan sosial di Indonesia, yang dimaksudkan untuk mengembangkan karakter penting seperti kecintaan pada alam Indonesia dan sikap menjaganya, serta mengembangkan karakter mengasahi sesama sebagai dasar terbentuknya perilaku sosial yang positif. Namun, untuk menambah wawasan pengetahuan siswa, beberapa teks juga mengambil tema yang lebih global.

Buku ini mendorong penggunaan belajar berkelompok dalam berbagai bentuk, dengan tujuan agar siswa banyak berinteraksi, sehingga terbangun kemampuan berkomunikasi dan bekerja dalam tim. Dengan demikian, siswa berlatih untuk berpartisipasi dalam menyampaikan gagasan dan pemikirannya berkaitan dengan jenis teks yang sedang dipelajari, yang pada akhirnya dapat mengembangkan keberanian siswa dalam mengemukakan ide atau gagasan. Buku ini menjabarkan usaha minimal yang harus dilakukan siswa untuk mencapai kompetensi yang diharapkan. Dengan kata lain, siswa diajak untuk menjadi berani mencari sumber belajar lain yang tersedia dan yang terbentang luas di sekitarnya. Peran guru dalam meningkatkan dan menyesuaikan daya serap siswa dengan ketersediaan kegiatan pada buku ini sangatlah penting. Guru diharapkan dapat memperkaya isi buku ini dengan kreasi dan kreativitasnya dalam bentuk kegiatan-kegiatan lain yang sesuai dan relevan yang bersumber dari lingkungan sosial dan alam terdekat dengan konteks mengajar.

Buku ini perlu terus diperbaiki dan disempurnakan. Oleh karena itu, kami mengharapkan saran, masukan, dan kritik dari para pembaca untuk perbaikan dan penyempurnaan buku ini pada edisi berikutnya. Atas kontribusi tersebut, kami menyampaikan terima kasih. Akhirnya, kami berharap buku ini dapat memberikan manfaat dalam usaha bangsa dan negara Indonesia membangun peradaban baru dan mempersiapkan generasi emas pada masa seratus tahun Indonesia. Merdeka.

Text 1: An email from Hannah

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Yahoo! Mail interface. The address bar shows the URL: `au-mg6.mail.yahoo.com/neo/launch?.rand=8o58tdqr8sft#mail`. The page header includes the Yahoo! Mail logo, a search bar, and navigation tabs for INBOX, CONTACTS, CALENDAR, and 'intro'. Below the header, there are buttons for 'Compose', 'Send', and 'Save Draft' (with a timestamp 'Saved at 2:52 AM'). The left sidebar shows folders: 'Inbox (5)', 'Drafts (2)', 'Sent', and 'Spam (169)'. The main content area is a compose window with a 'To' field containing 'alia-nur@yahoo.com', a 'Subject' field with 'Intro', and a rich text editor toolbar. The email body contains the following text:

Hello, Alia! Let me introduce myself. My name is Hannah.

I know your name from my friend, Caroline. She told me that you sent her an email telling her that you would like to have more pen pals from the US. I'd really like to be your E-pal. You sound really cool!

I guess I'd better tell you something about myself first. I'm 16 years old and I attend Thomas Edison High School here in Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA. I have two brothers and two half sisters and I'm the middle child. My father died a few years ago so my mother runs the house and the family business. My father was a barista.

I have lots of hobbies. I like music – mostly classical music and folk music – but I don't play an instrument. I like sports, especially tennis and basketball. At school I'm in the basketball team and I spend most of my extra-curricular time playing basket ball. I'm into animals very much. My sister and I have three dogs. They need lots of attention as you can imagine. My favorite subjects at school are art and geography. I think I'd like to become a park ranger when I graduate, perhaps work for the National Parks Service.

I don't like reading but I love drawing and painting. How about you? Please drop me a line, Alia! Can't wait to hear from you!

Hannah

At the bottom of the compose window, there is a 'Send' button, a toolbar with icons for text formatting (bold, italic, underline, link, unlink, text color, background color), and a timestamp 'Saved at 4:22 PM'.

Text 2:

A letter from Saidah

Assalamu'alaikum Alia,

It was very interesting to read your letter about yourself and your hometown. I would really like to be your pen friend.

I'm a sixteen-year-old school student from Johor Bahru in Malaysia. Actually I attend an Islamic boarding school just outside the city but my family live in Kuala Lumpur. My eldest sister is a medical doctor. My younger brother is an elementary school student.

My favorite subjects are social sciences. I like history very much; it helps me know more how different countries existed in the past. At school we are supposed to use English at all times, so we have become quite fluent although sometimes we slip back into Malay, which is our mother tongue.

As for hobbies, I'm really into songs and music. My favorite boy band is One Direction. My favorite Malay singer is, of course, Siti Nurhaliza. I also like watching movies, especially comedies. The actor I like best is Tom Cruise.

I'm really into books. I like reading novels and short stories. I like some writers in English, like JK Rowling, and Indonesian writers too, like Andrea Hirata and Ahmad Fuadi. My dream, when I'm older, is to be a writer of science fiction books.

I'd really love to come to Indonesia some day, especially to the magnificent Raja Ampat in Papua. What about you, do you want to visit my country?

Wassalam.

Cheers,
Saidah

Identify the structure of the organisation of the letter.

- What details can you find in the opening?
- What's the purpose of telling the contents?
- What details can you find in the contents?
- What's the purpose of writing the closing?
- What details can you find in the closing?

GRAMMAR REVIEW

Pronouns

In self introduction and also in other communication activities, pronouns are frequently used to prevent unimportant repetition. Pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun, such as: I, you, me, it, they, we, she, him, us.

Read the following sentences:

Alia wants to have many pen pals because Alia likes making friends. Alia's pen pals come from many parts of the world. Caroline introduces Alia to Hannah. Now, Hannah becomes Alia's pen pals. Hannah likes Alia a lot.

Task 2:

The word Alia is repeated too often and that makes the sentences not interesting. To make the sentences better we can replace Alia with pronouns: Complete the sentences with be (am, is, are, was, were). Remember to use the correct forms.

Alia wants to have many pen pals because she likes making friends. Her pen pals come from many parts of the world. Caroline introduces her to Hannah. Now Hannah becomes Alia's pen pals. Hannah likes her a lot.*

There are several types of pronouns: subjective, objective, possessive adjectives, and possessive pronouns. Read the following table and the following explanation.

Subjective	Objective	Possessive adjective	Possessive pronoun
I	Me	my	mine
you	You	your	yours
he	Him	his	his
she	Her	her	hers
we	Us	our	ours
they	Them	their	theirs
it	It	its	its

1. Subjective pronouns are the subjects of a sentence:

Read the following sentences. Pay attention to the underlined words as examples of subjective pronouns.

- a. I have three dogs.
- b. You like to have many pen pals.
- c. He studies in an elementary school.
- d. She will get married.
- e. We love Indonesia
- f. They need attention
- g. It barks when it is happy.

2. Objective pronouns are the objects of a sentence:

Read the following sentences. Pay attention to the underlined words as examples of objective pronouns.

- a. I know Caroline. She introduced me to you via e-mail.
- b. My brother is an elementary school student. Sometimes I accompany him to go to school.
- c. My sister is a good student. Her campus gave her scholarship.
- d. We love animals. Last week our neighbour gave us a funny kitten.
- e. They run the family business seriously. Customers like them very much.
- f. The fur of the cat is soft. We like to stroke it.

3. Possessive adjectives are words that indicate possession. Possessive adjectives are used with nouns.

my	 + noun
your her his our their its

Read the following sentences. Pay attention to the underlined words as examples of possessive adjectives. The possessive adjectives modify the nouns to show possession. The words in italics are the noun.

- I have a pen pal. My pen pal is very kind.
- You have three dogs. Your dogs need a lot of attention.
- He studies in an elementary school. His school is not far.
- She loves reading books. Her books are in that cupboard.
- We run the business together. Our business is good.
- They frequently come here. This park is their favorite place.
- The kitten is funny. Its tail moves fast when it's happy.

4. Possessive pronouns also show possession but possessive pronouns are not followed by nouns.

Read the following sentences. Pay attention to the underlined words

mine	yours	his her	ours	their

as examples of possessive pronouns.

- This is my book. This book is mine.
- These are your dog. These dogs are yours.
- His school is far from here. His is far.
- Her book is interesting. Hers is interesting.
- Their family business is good. Theirs is good.
- Our plan has many alternatives. Ours has many alternatives.

SPEAKING

Task 1: Guessing Games - Who Am I?

You'll play a kind of guessing game 'Who Am I?'. Your teacher will put a post-it paper with one of the words below on your back. You need to work in pairs and guess what the word on your back is by asking questions. Your partner may only answer your questions with either 'yes' or 'no'. Observe the following examples of the questions.

Questions to ask:

-Does it relate to a family relationship?
-Am I female?
-Am I a mother?

- Does it relate to a profession?
- Do I work in a hospital?
- Am I a medical doctor?

-Does it relate to a hobby?
-Am I an outdoor activity?
-Am I related to music? etc.

Words to be written on post-it:

Picture 1.5

The following is an example of a conversation between Edo and Slamet who meet for the first time in a party like in picture 1.5. They introduce themselves to each other to know their acquaintance better. Read the dialog silently first. Pay attention to how to introduce self. Discuss the expressions used with your classmate sitting next to you. Then act out pretending to be Edo and Slamet who introduce themselves to each other.

1. Hello, I am Edo. May I know your name please?

2. Sure, I am Slamet. I am from Jepara. What about you?

3. I am from Raja Ampat. I work in a tourism resort

4. I work for a furniture company. have you heard about ukir Jepara?

5. Yes, and I want to know more about that

6. It's a specific carving pattern created in Jepara.

Picture 1.5

B. Imagine that you and your classmates are all invited to a party and become the guests there. Think about and use new identities. For instance, you can pretend to become your favorite football player, singer, or scientist, etc. The new identities make you unfamiliar with each other because that is the first time you meet. Talk to each other and introduce yourself: tell about your family, your profession, and your hobbies. You can use the following questions:

- May I know your name please?
- Can you tell me what your profession is? Or,
- What do you do?
- What're your hobbies?
- Do you like painting?
- Do you like music?

C. Think of other questions. You may also introduce your friends who also use new identities to other guests. Introduce yourself or your friends to at least two people.

WRITING

Responding to an email/a letter

Imagine that you're Alia. Write an email or a letter responding to the email or letter you've read and discussed. Use the following questions to guide you.

1. What do you write to start your response to an email/a letter?
2. What details do you write in your email/letter? (How old are you? Where do you attend senior high school? What are your hobbies? How many siblings do you have? Etc.)
3. What do you write to end your letter/email?
4. Before you send your email/letter, read through your email/letter to find any content, grammar, vocabulary, grammar, spelling, or punctuation errors and correct them if any.

READING

Task 1:

Read text 1 carefully. Pay attention to the expressions used to congratulate people (in this case, Alif). Pay attention also to the responses.

Text 1

After a long struggle and hard work, Alif is finally appointed as the director of a national company where he works. Many of his friends who work at the same company congratulate him.

- Samuel : Alif, congratulations. You deserved it, Man.
Alif : Thank you very much. This is because you always help me.
Sinta : I am very happy for you, Alif. Now, that you are the director of the company, I believe the company will develop even faster.
Alif : (replies with a happy tone) Thank you. I cannot forget your collaboration with me, and I will still need your help.

Other friends shake his hands and congratulate him too.

- Deni : That's wonderful, Alif.
Alif : Oh, thanks.
Santi : Good for you. Good luck.
Alif : Thank you very much.
Bejo : Well done.
Alif : Thank you for saying so.
Ivan : That was great. You must be very proud of your achievement.
Alif : Thanks. I'm glad you think so. But I still have to learn a lot.

His staff also congratulate him.

- Eny : Please accept my warmest congratulations, Sir.
Alif : It's very kind of you to say so. Thank you.

Bintari : I must congratulate you on your success.
Alif : Thank you very much for saying so.

They all celebrate Alif's success by having lunch together in a simple food stall next to their office. Every body is happy.

Task 2:

Answer the following questions.

1. Why do all of those people congratulate Alif?
2. What expressions do they use to congratulate Alif?
3. How does Alif respond to their congratulating expressions?
4. What is the social purpose of congratulating people?
5. When do we congratulate people?
6. What are the expressions commonly used to congratulate people?

Task 3:

Read the dialog silently. Pay attention to the expression used to congratulate people. Discuss the meaning with your classmate. After that read aloud the dialog in pairs. One of you become Cita, the other becomes Ditto. Then, discuss the answer to the questions.

Text 2

Cita has won the first winner of the story telling competition in her school. Her best friend congratulated her.

Ditto : Cita, congratulations for being the first winner of the school story telling competition! Excellent. You really did it well.
Cita : Thanks, Ditto.
Ditto : I heard that you will be the representative of our school in the story telling competition of our regency. Is it true?
Cita : Yes, you're right.
Ditto : I hope you will win as well in the next competition.
Cita : I hope so. But I'm nervous.
Ditto : Don't worry, you're a very good story teller. Good luck.
Cita : Thanks. I'll do my best. Wish me luck.

Task 4

Answer the following questions:

1. What good news about Dita does Ditto know?
2. What does Ditto say to Dita related to the news?
3. What do the expressions mean?
4. What is Ditto's purpose of saying that to Dita?
5. How does Dita respond to what Ditto says?
6. When do you think you will say 'congratulations' to other people?

Task 5:

Complete the following table with the expressions of congratulations and the responses you find in the preceding dialogs. The first row is done for you.

Congratulating Expressions	Responses
Congratulations! You deserved it, Man.	Thank you very much. Your support means a lot.

In congratulating, people may make more than one move, for example, “Congratulations! You deserved it, Man.” Similarly, in responding to congratulating expressions, people do not only make one move, like “Thank you very much.” Usually they also say something else such as “This is because you’re always with me”.

Rani : _____ (1) to say that.
Anisa : I've never seen you in that hat. Where did you buy it?
Rani : My mom bought it for me when she went to the market.
Anisa : I see.
Rani : Look. The teacher is coming!
Anisa : Pak Sultoni.
Mr. Sultoni : Hi, how are you?
Rani : We're good. Thanks.
Anisa : Excellent.
Rani : _____ (2) hair cut, Pak Sultoni.
Anisa : Yes, you're looking good with your hair style.
Mr. Sultoni : Thanks a lot. Rani, I heard you won the Math Olympiad. Is it true?
Rani : Yes, I won the second prize last week.
Anisa : _____ (3)
Mr. Sultoni : _____ (4) to hear that.
Rani : Thank you very much for saying so.

Conversation 2

- Rudi : Hi Ben. How are you?
Ben : Hi, you look great in that black jacket.
Rudi : _____ (1) saying so.
Ben : I've never seen you in that outfit. Is it new?
Rudi : My sister bought it for me when she went to Singapore.
Ben : Oh, I see.
Rudi : Look. What a nice new hair style! Where did you have a haircut? I like it a lot.
Ben : _____ (2) think so. My brother did it. I can ask him to do yours if you want to.
Rudi : Yes, please. Look! Andi is coming.
Ben : Hi Andi, I heard you won the Speech Contest last month. Congratulations! _____ (3)
Rudi : Fantastic! It's a great job, bro!
Andi : Oh, thanks. It's _____ (4) actually.

Please note that at the end of the word ‘congratulation’ there must be an ‘s’ attached to it. So, never say ‘congratulation’ without an ‘s’. You must say, “Congratulations.”

SPEAKING

Let’s play rock, paper, and scissors.

Work in pairs. Play scissors, rock, and paper. The winner chooses for himself/herself a situation. The partner makes an expression of congratulations. For example, the winner chooses situation 5. He/She says, “I just bought a new bag.” The partner says, “Congratulations. Your new bag is gorgeous.” Then develop a conversation based on that. After that, start all over again by doing the scissors, rock, and paper again, and so forth. Continue doing that with all the situations provided in the table below.

1. haircut	2. jacket	3. speech contest
4. got driver’s licence	5. new bag	6. math Olympiad
7. best student	8. writing competition	9. new baby
10. new house	11. graduation	12. getting married

DIALOG: COMPLIMENTING

Task 1:

Read the dialog silently and carefully. Pay attention to the complimenting expressions and the responses.

Rahmi : Hello. How are things going on, Sinta?

Sinta : Hi. Good, and you?

Rahmi : I'm feeling great today. How was your weekend with your family in Batu?

Sinta : Excellent! We had a lovely time there. You should have gone there with us.

Rahmi : Really? Hey, what a beautiful skirt you are wearing. It matches your blouse.

Sinta : Thanks a lot. My sister bought it for me last month.

Rahmi : Wow! That's wonderful.

Sinta : Oh, Rahmi, can I ask you something?

Rahmi : Oh, sure. Please.

Sinta : Have you finished writing the book we discussed two months ago?

Rahmi : Yes. Come to my room. Look at this. What do you think?

Sinta : Terrific. I like the cover. Let me see the contents. This book is excellent. You really did a great job.

Rahmi : Thanks a lot. You've inspired me to do this.

Sinta : Your publisher should send it to all bookstores here.
Rahmi : Yes, you're right. The publisher will do it for me.
Sinta : Well, that's great. I am proud of you, Rahmi. By the way,
I've got to go now. Have a nice day!
Rahmi : You, too.

Task 2:

Read aloud the dialog with a classmate. Pay attention to the complimenting expressions and the responses too.

Picture 2.14

Task 3: Read the following notes about complimenting expressions. After that perform the dialogs in the following that with your classmates.

Notes:

COMPLIMENTING

Compliment is an expression to appreciate or praise other people. Compliment is useful to give encouragement so that people will keep on doing their best and even improve their performance.

When to express compliment:

- On daily basis,
- When someone has done his/her best,
- When you visit someone's house for the first time,
- If you notice something new about someone's appearance.

Can you think of other situations when you need to compliment?

- A1. Riza is working really hard. Ami compliments Riza. Riza responds to the compliment happily.
- A2. Firda is showing a very nice drawing. Fadhil compliments Firda. Firda responds to the compliment.

- B1. Wayan is wearing a new pair of shoes. Angelina compliments Wayan. Wayan responds to the compliment.
- B2. Zainab looks beautiful in her new skirt. Raymond compliments Siti. Siti responds to the compliment.

SPEAKING

Task 1:

Let's play rock-paper-scissors.

Work in pairs. Play scissors, rock, and paper. The winner chooses a situation from which he/she creates an expression of compliment. The partner responds to the expression. After that, do the scissors, rock, and paper again. Continue doing that with all the situations provided below.

Compliments
Situation 1 You see your friend with her new haircut.
Situation 2 Your sister drives very well.
Situation 3 Your best friend handled a problem successfully.

Situation 4

You visit your friend's house for the first time.

Situation 5

Your classmate submitted her project on time.

Situation 6

Your sister's team won a game.

Situation 7

Your brother has just bought a new, smart robot.

Situation 8

Your friend has a new T-shirt.

Task 2:

Let's play ball throwing.

- Your teacher will tell you how to do ball throwing activity in groups.
- In turns, give a compliment to your classmates and respond to that nicely.

Picture 2.21

POINTS TO PONDER

Have you ever given any compliments to someone? Who is he/she? Why did you compliment him/her? How did your friend feel when you complimented him/her? How did your compliment make him/her feel?

REFLECTION

At the end of this chapter, ask yourself the following questions to see how well you have learned.

1. Do you know how to congratulate people and when do you need to do that?
2. Do you also know how to compliment people, and when do you need to do that?

If your answer is 'no' to one of these questions, read this chapter and do the activities again. Don't hesitate to see your teacher or classmates and discuss with them how to make you understand and be able to use the expression better.

DIALOG: EXPRESSING INTENTION

Task 1:

Read aloud the following conversation. Take turns with your classmates doing the roles. Then, answer the questions following that.

A. A long weekend is coming. Riri, Santi, and Bayu are talking about their holiday plans. Pay attention to the pronunciation and intonation of the dialog below.

Riri : It will be a long weekend soon. Do you have any plans?

Santi : Uhm, I'm not sure. I don't have any idea yet. I think I might stay at home.

Bayu : Stay at home? Well, you could do something more interesting!

Santi : So, what about you Bayu? Do you have any plans?

Bayu : Definitely! My dad and I are going to go fishing.

Santi : Fishing? Are you going to go fishing in the river near your house?

Bayu : No. We plan to go fishing in a lake near my uncle's house. Would you like to come with us?

Santi : Fishing? That sounds great. But I would rather stay at home than go fishing.

Bayu : What about you, Riri? What would you like to do on the long weekend?

Riri : I have made a plan with my mother about what to do on this long weekend. We are going to practice baking cookies.

Santi : That sounds like a very good plan!

Bayu : Are you going to bake choco chips cookies like the last time?

Riri : Well, yes. That is my favorite. But we will also try to make ginger cookies.

Santi : Lucky you. Your mom is a real baker, isn't she?

Bayu : Ha ha, ha. Do you still want to stay home alone?

Riri : Or, would you like to join me to learn baking cookies? You can come to my house.

Bayu : It's a good idea! Or will you go fishing with me and my dad?

Santi : I think I would like to bake cookies with Riri. Thanks for inviting me, Riri.

Riri : No problem. I will tell you the time on Friday.

Santi : Thanks a lot. I can't wait to join you.

Bayu : Have a nice long weekend, everyone.

Riri, Santi : You too.

B. Answer the comprehension questions below based on the dialog.

1. What are Bayu, Riri, and Santi discussing?
2. Who already have the plan for the weekend?
3. What are their plans?
4. Who doesn't have the plan? What does s/he finally decide to do on weekend?
5. What do the sentences typed in bold express?
6. When do people use those expressions?

Task 2:

Later, Riri, Bayu, and Santi talk again about the plan. This time they want to do something together. Continue the conversation based on the given hint.

Riri : Let's do something together this long weekend.

Santi : It's a great idea! What about _____?

Bayu : Or we could _____?

GRAMMAR REVIEW

Using I WOULD LIKE TO and I AM GOING TO

Task 1:

Look at the excerpt from the dialog below. Pay attention to the bold-typed expressions.

Santi : So, what about you, Bayu? Do you have any plans?

Bayu : Definitely! My dad and I are going to go fishing. We plan to go fishing in a lake near my uncle's house. Would you like to come with us?

Santi : I don't really like fishing. I would rather stay at home than go fishing. What about you, Riri? What would you like to do on the long weekend?

- Riri : I have made a plan with my mother about what to do on this long weekend. We are going to practice baking cookies.
- Bayu : Are you going to bake choco chips cookies like the other day?
- Riri : Well, yes. That is my favorite. But we are going to try to make ginger cookies too.
- Riri : Oh, would you like to join me to learn baking cookies? You can come to my house.
- Bayu : It's a good idea! Or will you go fishing with me and my dad?
- Santi : Uhm, not fishing I guess. But I think I would like to bake cookies with Riri. Thanks for asking me to join you Riri.

Task 2:

Read the previous dialogs again. Identify the bold-typed expressions and fill in the table below with the question and statement forms of the expressions.

See the example.	Statement form	Question form
be going to + simple verb	1. My dad and I are going to go fishing	1.
would like + simple verb

Note :

In daily life, it is common for us to tell other people about our intention or plan to do something in the future. We also frequently ask them, or they ask us about about that. For telling our intention or plan, we can use be going to + simple form of the verb and would like to +simple form of the verb, and we use the statement form. For asking, we use the question form. Read again the dialog among Riri, Bayu, and Santi in this chapter to see how the expressions are used in conversations.

SPEAKING

Task 1:

Make up short dialogs for the following situations. Read the answer of number 1 as an example.

1. You plan to do the Biology project at the library after school. You ask your classmate, Rina, to do it together with you.

A : I am going to do my biology project at the library after school. Rina, are you going to do that today, too?

B : Yes. I am going to do it today. The sooner we finish it the better. We can go to the library together.

2. You plan to go to the movie this weekend. You ask several friends to go with you. Two of your friends definitely agree with you, but the other two cannot make up their minds. Use the expressions in the previous section in the conversation.

3. School holiday is coming soon. You plan to go to your grandma's house in the country. You want to find out what your friend is planning. Use the expressions in the previous section in the conversation.

4. It will be the school's anniversary next month. You and your classmates are discussing the plan for the class performance. One of them seems to disagree with the idea because he thinks that it will need a lot of money. Use the expressions in the previous section in the conversation.

5. A friend is absent because she/he is sick. You and your classmates plan to visit her/him this afternoon. However, one of them makes an excuse for not going. Use the expressions in the previous section in the conversation.

Task 2:

Act out one of the dialogs for the class.

Task 3:

Make formal speech and perform it in front of the class. Follow the steps given.

1. First, imagine that you are running for the president of the student organization.
2. You are preparing a campaign for the president of the student organization.
3. List the promises you will make during the speech. For example:

If I am elected as the president of the student organization, I will support sport competition in our school. We are going to have more regular practices of sports like soccer and badminton so that we can win in competitions. I would also like to etc.

4. Present your speech in front of the class.

WRITING

Write a paragraph about your holiday plan. Use I would like to ... and I am going to..... in your paragraph. Use the given questions to guide you.

Holiday plan

1. Where would you like to go on holiday? Would you like to go somewhere interesting or stay at home?
2. If you are spending your holiday away from home, where would you like to go?
3. If you stay at home, what do you plan to do?

REFLECTION

At the end of this chapter, ask yourself the following questions to know how effective your learning process has been.

1. Are you able to identify the forms and uses of “would like to” and “be going to”?
2. Can you make statements or questions using “would like to” and “be going to”?
3. Do you know when to use the expressions?

If you answer ‘no’ to one of those questions, see your teacher and discuss with him/her how to make you able to express your intention in spoken and written forms.

Task 1:

Now, read text 1 carefully. What do you think about the place described below?

Text 1

TANJUNG PUTING NATIONAL PARK

Tanjung Puting National Park is an internationally famous ecotourism destination, which is located in the southwest of Central Kalimantan peninsula. Visitors from foreign countries come to this park because of its amazing nature. This is called a park, but unlike any park that you have seen in your city, this is a jungle! It is a real jungle, which is home to the most interesting animal in the world: orangutans.

Though the park is home to many animals, seeing orangutans is usually the visitors' main reason to visit the park. Orangutans, which literally mean the man of the forest, are the largest arboreal animal on the planet. Most of their lives are spent in trees where orangutans travel from branch to branch by climbing or swinging with their long arms.

To see orangutans, we should go to Camp Leakey, which is located in the heart of Tanjung Puting National Park. Camp Leakey is a rehabilitation place for ex-captive orang utans and also a preservation site. It is also a famous center for research about orangutans which has been conducted by the famous primatologist Dr. Birute Galdikas since 1971. Here visitors can see daily feedings to orangutans at jungle platforms as part of the rehabilitation process to their natural habitat. This event gives them opportunity to see orangutans up close.

Picture 4.2

To reach the place, we should take a boat down Sekonyer river. The boat is popularly called perahu klotok which is a boathouse that can accommodate four people. The trip by the boat to Camp Leakey takes three days and two nights. You sleep, cook, and eat in that klotok, night and day during your journey into the jungle.

The traveling in the boat offers an unforgettable experience. In daylight, on your way to Camp Leakey, you can see trees filled with proboscis monkeys, monkeys that have enormous snout which can only be found in Kalimantan. The monkeys anxiously await klotok arrivals. A troop of 30 light-brown monkeys may plunge from branches 10 meters or higher into the river and cross directly in front of the boat. These monkeys know that the boat's engine noise and the threat of its propeller scare crocodiles, which find these chubby monkeys delicious. At night, you can enjoy the clear sky and the amazingly bright stars as the only lights for the night.

With such exotic nature, no wonder many tourists from foreign countries who love ecotourism frequently visit Tanjung Puting National Park. What about you?

Task 2:

Answer the following questions briefly.

1. Based on the text, can you guess what ecotourism is? Give some examples of other ecotourism destinations.
2. As one of ecotourism destinations, what does Tanjung Puting National Park offer to tourists?
3. How is the park different from the parks in cities?
4. How is Camp Leakey related to Tanjung Puting National Park?
5. What does the word ex-captive tell you about the orangutans in Camp Leakey, which is a rehabilitation site for orangutans?
6. How can people reach Camp Leakey?
7. What is special about the means of transportation to Camp Leakey.
8. What can tourists enjoy during their trip to Camp Leakey?
9. What do you think is the most interesting scene in Tanjung Puting National Park?
10. How important is the research by Dr. Birute Galdikas?
11. What is the author's purpose in writing this text?
12. How is each paragraph related to each other?
13. What is the most dominant tense used in this text?

Task 3 :

Tourists probably bring food and snacks in paper or plastic packages when they visit Tanjung Puting National Park. What should they do with the wastes? If you were also a tourist, what would you do?

Task 4:

Rearrange the place of the main ideas in the right column to match it with the purpose of each paragraph.

Parts of the Text	Purpose	Main Idea
Paragraph 1	Opening statement to introduce the subject	a. Orangutan is the main reason why people come to Tanjung Puting National Park.
Paragraph 2	Supporting paragraph that describes the subject	b. Camp Leakey is where we can see orangutans.
Paragraph 3	Supporting paragraph that describes the subject	c. People from foreign countries come because of its exotic nature.
Paragraph 4	Supporting paragraph that describes the subject	d. Tanjung Puting National Park is an internationally famous ecotourism destination because of its amazing nature.
Paragraph 5	Supporting paragraph that describes the subject	e. To go to Camp Leakey we should take perahu klotok down the Sekonyer river.
Paragraph 6	Concluding paragraph that indicates the end of the text	f. The travelling by perahu klotok gives interesting experience.

A descriptive text describes a particular object like a place, thing, or person. What is the author's purpose in writing a description? The author wants to describe the particular object by describing its or his/her specific features to help readers visualize what a person, an animal, a park, or a thing is like.

How is a descriptive text constructed? It starts with an opening paragraph. In the paragraph there is a topic sentence that introduces the object going to be described. A series of paragraphs follow the opening to describe the parts or the features or the specific characteristics of the subject.

Picture 4.3

Taj Mahal

Taj Mahal, an epitome of love, is actually a mausoleum. Standing majestically on the banks of River Yamuna, the Taj Mahal is synonymous to love and romance. Taj Mahal was constructed by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan in the memory of his beloved wife and queen. The name “Taj Mahal” was derived from the name of Shah Jahan’s wife, Mumtaz Mahal, which means crown of palaces.

Taj Mahal represents the finest architectural and artistic achievement. The mausoleum was constructed of pure white marble. The white marble is inlaid with semi-precious stones (including jade, crystal, lapis lazuli, amethyst and turquoise) that form the intricate designs. Its central dome reaches a height of 240 feet (73 meters). The dome is surrounded by four smaller domes. Four slender towers, or minarets, stand at the corners. Inside the mausoleum, an octagonal marble chamber adorned with carvings and semi-precious stones house the false tomb of Mumtaz Mahal. Her actual remains lie below, at garden level.

Taj Mahal shows shades of magnificent beauty at different time during the day. At dawn when the first rays of the sun hits the dome of this epic monument, it radiates like a heavenly pinkish palace. At daytime, when the sky is bright and clear, the Taj looks milky white. At a moonlit night when the full moon rays fall on the glistening white marble, the cool moon rays reflect back from the white marble and give the Taj Mahal a tinge of blue color. It's simply breathtaking! With such beauty, no wonder that Taj Mahal becomes one of the the Seven Wonders of the World.

GRAMMAR REVIEW

Nouns and Adjectives

When describing, writers use many noun phrases in trying to make readers get the mental picture of what is being described. As you know, noun is a thing, a place, or a person, an animal, while adjective is a word that describes a noun. An adjective that describes a noun is called a modifier. A noun that goes with a modifier is called a noun phrase. Observe where the position of the modifier is.

For example:

adjectives	nouns	noun phrases
beautiful	bird	beautiful bird
unique	monkey	unique monkey
enormous	nose	enormous nose

white	marble	white marble
intricate	design	intricate design
precious	stones	precious stones

Task 1:

Study the following sentences. Identify the noun phrase by circling the adjectives and underlining the noun. Draw an arrow to show how the adjectives modify the nouns. Number 1 is done for you as an example.

1. Taj Mahal offers spectacular view.
2. Tanjung Puting National Park offers an impressive experience.
3. The traveling in the boat offers another unforgettable experience.
4. At night, you can enjoy the clear sky and the bright stars.
5. Local people call proboscis monkeys Bekantan.
6. Fruits are orangutans' favorite food.
7. Keeping orangutans as our pet is an illegal act.
8. In the rehabilitation site, ex-captive orangutans learn to live a natural life.
9. In a real jungle, we can see many incredible animals.
10. Imagine yourself to be in the jungle and meet these special animals in their original habitat.
11. The gigantic trees in the forest indicate that the forest is well preserved.
12. The slender minarets make the palace beautiful.
13. The remains were kept in the octagonal chamber.
14. Her actual remains lie below, at garden level.

Task 2:

Make noun phrases. The words on the left columns are adjectives and the words on the right column are nouns. Combine them to make noun phrases. See number 1 as an example.

- | | | |
|-----|-------------|-------|
| 1. | spectacular | view |
| 2. | _____ | _____ |
| 3. | _____ | _____ |
| 4. | _____ | _____ |
| 5. | _____ | _____ |
| 6. | _____ | _____ |
| 7. | _____ | _____ |
| 8. | _____ | _____ |
| 9. | _____ | _____ |
| 10. | _____ | _____ |
| 11. | _____ | _____ |
| 12. | _____ | _____ |
| 13. | _____ | _____ |

Task 3:

From the previous task, you have reviewed noun phrases made by combining adjectives and nouns, such as pristine jungle, beautiful garden, precious stones, expensive marble, etc. Those kinds of adjectives are called opinion adjectives because the adjectives tell about our opinion about something. If we want to give more information, we can add more modifiers to the thing (noun) we describe. For instance, in addition to the opinion adjectives, we can also inform people about the size, and the color, the age, and nationality of the thing (noun). Look at the following examples. Pay attention to the order of the modifiers. Where is the position of the opinion adjectives?

Example:

- a beautiful old tree* → opinion age noun
a beautiful reddish leaf → opinion color noun
a beautiful Indonesian island → opinion nationality noun

The following is the common word order of adjectives before a noun.

Opinion	Size	Age	Color	Nationality	Materials	Noun
impressive	large	old	purple	Chinese	ceramic	vase
beautiful	little	young	dark	Indonesian	-	girl

However, it is very rare to find noun phrases with more than 3 modifiers like the examples in the table above.

Now, read the phrases below. Identify the modifiers. See number 1 as an example.

- | | | | | |
|---------------------------------|---|-------------|--------------|-------------|
| 1. large black stones | → | size | color | noun |
| 2. a shallow small lake | → | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 3. cold tiny droplets | → | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 4. sweet yellow corns | → | _____ | _____ | _____ |

| 11. an octagonal marble chamber | → | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 12. four smaller domes | → | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 13. breathtaking blue view | → | _____ | _____ | _____ |

Task 4 Identifying noun phrases

Try to find as least 10 (ten) noun phrases from the reading text about Tanjung Puting National Park and Taj Mahal and discuss the meaning of the phrases.

Example:

internationally famous ecotourism destinations

WRITING

Task 1: Editing - Pair Work

Read the following description about a tourist destination carefully. The writer forgot to edit her draft. Can you find the errors in the text and help her edit the text?

For example, read carefully the fifth sentence in the following text. Can you find the errors in the sentence? Yes, waterfal and a bowl giant. The first error should be written waterfall because it was misspelled, and a bowl giant should be written giant bowl (remember how to make noun phrase). Now try to find the other errors and try to correct them.

If you go to Batu city in East Java, do not forget to visit Cuban Rondo. Cuban Rondo is a must-see waterfall because of its spectacular scenery. The first amazing natural charm to enjoy is the huge greenish rock. The gigantic rock and its vegetation that surrounds the waterfal soar high into the sky. The top of the rock bends inward so that when we stand close to the waterfal, we will feel as if we were inside of a gigantic cave or a Bowl Giant. The greatness of the nature will make you feel very small and price God. The second scenery to enjoy is the charm of the waterfall itself. From the top of the soaring rock, huge amount of water continuously falls down, splash on the large black stones at the bottom of the waterfall, and forms a shallow small lake and stream. The water in the lake and stream crystal clear and icy cold. The wind that blow the falling water and the splash produce millions of tiny droplets of water. The wind can blow your boat. The droplets covers the small lake and visitors in mist. Yes, you will get wet. But you can go to the mall. When the sunlight shine through the cold tiny droplets, you will see rainbows on the earth, not in the sky, that seems close enough to you the senery is breathtaking. End the trip with something that can warm you up. In the rest area, you can buy roasted sweet corns. If that is not enough, you can also buy drinks hot delicious and meatball soup hot. When you go home, leave nothing in the area but your footsteps and bring home only your memory unforgettabel about the beautiful Cuban Rondo Waterfall.

Picture 4.4

Guiding questions for editing:

1. Does the writer use indentation? What should she do?
2. Does the writer use correct paragraphing?
3. Is there any sentence that begins the description by introducing the object to be described?
4. If you want to divide the text into some paragraphs, how will you do it?
5. Does each paragraph start with a sentence that introduces the object to be described?
6. Are there any irrelevant sentences? Can you help the writer find out if any?
7. Are there any misspelled words? Can you help her find out if any and correct them?
8. Does the writer use correct grammar in all of her sentences? Help her check the following things:
 - a. whether the verbs in the sentences agree with the subjects,
 - b. whether the modifiers in the noun phrases are well sequenced.
9. Does she begin all sentences with capital letters? Check the sentences and correct any mistakes you find.
10. Does she end all sentences with full stops? Correct them if she does not.

Task 2 – Rewriting description Pairwork

A word web help writers organize their ideas. Now, make a word web of the text about Cuban Rondo and include the details. Now, based on the word web that you've made, write a description about Cuban Rondo. You may also use your imagination to develop the text. To enrich your vocabulary, you can try to use the words found in reading text 1 and 2. You can also use the organization of ideas of text 1 and 2. Do this in pairs.

Task 3 – Writing a descriptive essay

Think of a place you like to visit or a favorite place that you have visited several times. This can be a tourism object or your favorite part of your house, or school, a park, or a traditional market in your hometown. Describe what is special about the place. Make a word web to help you get and organize ideas.

Using your word web, write an essay about that place. Include an introductory paragraph, two body paragraphs that contain the supporting details, and a concluding paragraph (read again task 4 for text 1).

After you finish writing, ask yourself the questions used in the editing section (writing-task 1).

SPEAKING

Describing - role play

Have you ever visited a waterfall, natural park, or other natural tourism objects, or interesting buildings, monuments, museum, temples, etc.? Describe what makes the place interesting.

Pretend as if you were a guide describing the special peculiarities of the tourism object. You can also pretend to be a tourist guide for Tanjung Puting National Park or Taj Mahal. In that case, make a word web about Tanjung Puting National Park, or Taj Mahal, or your own favorite place. Based on the word web, take turns with your classmate describing the place.

REFLECTION

At the end of this chapter, ask yourself the following questions to know how effective your learning process is.

1. Can you do all the exercises in this chapter?

2. Which part is still difficult to do? What is your plan to make you better at doing that?
3. Do you remember the meaning of the new words found in this chapter?
4. What is your plan to make you retain the words and the meaning more firmly in your mind?
5. Do you know what the communicative purpose of a descriptive essay is?
6. When do people use this type of text?
7. What are the characteristics of a descriptive text?

FURTHER ACTIVITIES

Noun phrase (NP) is an important element in giving people a lot of information. That is why it is important that you learn to create noun phrases. To do that you will need to read a lot of texts, such as science texts, that often use noun phrases. Find a biology text and identify the noun phrases used. Share what you have with your classmates.

VISITING NIAGARA FALLS

Source: Dokumen Kemdikbud
Picture 5.3

Niagara Falls is the collective name for three waterfalls that cross the international border between the Canadian province of Ontario and the USA's state of New York. They form the southern end of the Niagara Gorge. From largest to smallest, the three waterfalls are the Horseshoe Falls, the American Falls and the Bridal Veil Falls. The Horseshoe Falls lie on the Canadian side and the American Falls on the American side. They are separated by Goat Island. The smaller Bridal Veil Falls are also located on the American side, separated from the other waterfalls by Luna Island. There are various attractions that people can enjoy in Niagara Falls, six of them are described here.

The first to enjoy in Niagara Falls is Cave of the Winds. This attraction helps people get closer to the falls and go face-to-face with the pounding waters of the Falls. People can get soaked on the Hurricane Deck where they are just feet from the thundering waters. Waterproof clothing and sandals are provided. A trip at night when the Falls are illuminated in a rainbow of color is really amazing.

The second charm is Maid of the Mist Boat Tour. It is a world-famous scenic boat tour of the American and Canadian Falls for about a half-hour ride. People may access the tour via the Observation Tower elevator at Prospect Point in the state park. The boat operates mid-May until late October.

The next to visit in Niagara Falls is Niagara Adventure Theater. Here tourists may enjoy the most powerful and involving film experience that brings reality to life on a 45 foot screen. Audience members are given the privilege to discover the thundering Falls from a completely new and exhilarating perspective, and plunge over them. The theater shows hourly and free multi-language headsets are made available.

Niagara Science Museum is another place to visit. It is a sanctuary for the preservation and appreciation of old science instruments and philosophical apparatus.

The fifth point of interest is Niagara's Wax Museum of History. Here, life-size wax figures portraying dramatic history of Niagara Falls are presented to guests. They can see Fort Niagara Scene, Indian Village, old store, blacksmith and barber shop scenes and how electricity is made. Wax figures of Julia Roberts, Princess Diana and many more are displayed here, too.

Finally, people can also enjoy Rainbow Air Helicopter Tours above and around the American and Canadian Falls. The tours start from downtown, next to the entrance to the Rainbow Bridge, and open from 9am to dusk when weather permits. The tours operate every day from second weekend in May until October 31st.

The Niagara Falls are renowned both for their beauty and as a valuable source of hydroelectric power. Managing the balance between recreational, commercial, and industrial uses has been a challenge for the stewards of the falls since the 19th century.

Text 1: An Announcement about Concert Cancellation

Cancellation of JYJ Concert in Singapore

+ Write a Note

by Faith & D Entertainment on Monday, March 28, 2011 at 5:19am

Dear Fans and Media

This is an official announcement to inform everyone that we have just been notified by CJes Entertainment, the artiste agency of JYJ that they have decided to cancel JYJ World Tour Concert in Singapore which is scheduled on 23 April 2011 at Singapore Indoor Stadium.

It is with utmost regret that we have to accept this cancellation notice from the artiste agency at this point in time. We have submitted the final plans for stage, seating and ticketing for the agency's approval so as to proceed with the official announcement on ticket sale. These plans are in accordance with the regulations required by the authorities in Singapore and the budget allocated for the concert. It is most unfortunate that the plans are not approved by CJes and their decision is to cancel the concert. We respect the agency's decision and, with great regret, we are unable to change their mind but to accept this unforeseen circumstance that is beyond our control.

We understand the disappointment as well as the inconvenience caused due to the cancellation and we sincerely apologize – especially to the fans of JYJ.

DIALOG

Task 1:

Read the following conversation.

Interview With The Wright Brothers

In 1905, there was a TV talkshow that interview great inventors at that time. Below is a script of interview with The Wright brothers.

- Host : Hello and welcome to our talkshow tonight, Great Inventors! Today we have very special guests, Orville and Wilbur Wright. We are going to ask them about their revolutionary inventions. What do you call your invention?
- Orville : We invented airplane.
- Host : Airplane? What is the tool for?
- Wilbur : It's a tool that will help human being to fly!
- Host : Oohhh, is it like a flying car? How did you get the inspiration?
- Orville : Our dad gave us a toy helicopter that flew with the help of rubber bands. We've been interested in the idea since then.
- Wilbur : Orville has always liked to build kites, so, we have experimented with making our own helicopters for a while now.
- Host : But that was only a toy, what about the actual plane?
- Wilbur : Orville made the first flight with our first plane at Kitty Hawk on December 14, 1903.
- Host : Why did you choose Kitty Hawk?
- Orville : Kitty Hawk had a hill, good breezes, and was sandy. The condition would help soften the landings in case of a crash. The first flight lasted 12 seconds and they flew for 120 feet.
- Wilbur : We have worked and experimented with gliders to perfect the wing design and controls since then.
- Host : I see. So you've had the newest version of your airplane?
- Wilbur : Yes. Recently, I took a newly designed airplane that we called the Flyer II for the first flight lasting over 5 minutes.
- Host : How amazing! I think this invention will be a big thing soon.

Wilbur : Our father has asked us not to fly together. He said it's for the safety reason.
Orville : Yes, we will continue making more experiment so that airplane will be available for everyone soon.
Host : Okay, we wish you good luck with the next experiments.

SIMPLE PAST TENSE vs PRESENT PERFECT TENSE

Task 1:

Look at the excerpt from the text below. Study the sentences by paying attention to the words in the bold-typed and bold-italic typed expressions.

- Orville : Our dad gave us a toy helicopter that flew with the help of rubber bands. We've been interested in the idea since then.
- Wilbur : Orville has always liked to build kites, so, we have experimented with making our own helicopters for a while now.
- Host : But that was only a toy, what about the actual plane?
- Wilbur : Orville made the first flight with our first plane at Kitty Hawk on December 14, 1903.
- Host : Why did you choose Kitty Hawk?
- Orville : Kitty Hawk had a hill, good breezes, and was sandy. The condition would help soften the landings in case of a crash. The first flight lasted 12 seconds and they flew for 120 feet.
- Wilbur : We have worked and experimented with gliders to perfect the wing design and controls since then.

Can you tell what pattern is written in bold type?
What about the pattern in the bold italic type?

Task 2:

Complete the diagram below. Place this symbol (X) and lines at the diagram that can show Simple Past Tense and Present Perfect Tense.

USING THE SIMPLE PAST TENSE

Task 1:

Think of yesterday. What did you do? What didn't you do? List the verbs of your activities yesterday.

Things you did yesterday

Things you didn't do yesterday

Task 2:

Use the words in Task 1 to make sentences in the simple past tense.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

USING PRESENT PERFECT TENSE

Task 3:

Look at the sentences you made for Task 2 of this section. Now, make extended statements using Present Perfect Tense. Look at the example below.

Example:

Your sentence: I helped my mom cook in the kitchen.

Extended statement: I have helped my mom in the kitchen since I was 12 years old.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

SPEAKING

Task 1:

Look at the sentences that your partners make for the simple past tense. Ask further questions about the activities he/she did yesterday using what, where, why, who, when or how. Look at the example below.

Example:

Your classmate's sentence:

I ate dinner with my family last night.

Possible extended questions:

- What did you eat?
- Where did you eat?
- When did you finish eating? etc.

Task 2:

Look at the sentences that your partners make for the present perfect tense. Ask further questions about him/her using what, where, why, who, when or how. Look at the example below.

Example:

Your partners sentence:

I have helped my mom in the kitchen since I was 12 years old.

Possible extended question:

How have you helped your mom in the kitchen?

Task 3:

Interview with an inventor

1. Work in pairs. One of you will be the interviewer. Another will be the interviewee.
2. Discuss a popular person (it can be an inventor, popular people in the past like actresses, actors, athletes, etc.) who is going to be interviewed. The interviewee will pretend to be this person.

3. As an interviewer, you are going to prepare some questions that cover questions about his/her past activities (for example past experiments, albums, films, etc) and the recent and continuing activities.
4. As an interviewee, prepare to answer the questions with some accurate details. While the interviewer is preparing the questions, you can find information about the person you are pretending to be. Of course you can add any fun details to the answers.

WRITING

Write the interview report in the form of a paragraph in the form below. Look at the example below:

Interview form:

Host : How did you get the inspiration?

Orville : Our dad gave us a toy helicopter that flew with the help of rubber bands. We've been interested in the idea since then.

Wilbur : Orville has always liked to build kites, so, we have experimented with making our own helicopters for an while now.

Paragraph form:

The Wright brothers got an inspiration when their dad gave them a toy helicopter that flew with the help of rubber bands. They had been interested in the idea since then. Also, Orville had always liked to build kites, so, they had experimented with making their own helicopters for a while now.

REFLECTION

At the end of this chapter, ask yourself the following questions to know how effective your learning process is.

1. Can you identify the forms and uses of the simple past tense and the present perfect tense?
2. Can you make statements or questions using the simple past tense and the present perfect tense?
3. Can you write/do an interview?

If your answer is 'no' to one of these questions, see your teacher and discuss with him/her on how to make you able to carry out conversation about the completed past events and those that started in the past but you can still feel the impact.

FURTHER ACTIVITIES

Independently, read newspaper or Internet articles about a biography and pay attention to the uses of the simple past tense and the present perfect tense. Also, you can ask your classmates about their past activities and activities that started in the past but continues until now.

Meeting My Idol

Source: <http://www.mataberita.com/profil-dan-foto-afgan-syah-reza.html>
Picture 8.4

Afgan has always been my favorite singer. I had always been thinking of how I would feel when I met him. Then I was suddenly hit by lightning when I found out Afgan was coming to town for a concert in a local auditorium. A day before the concert, there would be a meet-and-greet event at a local radio station. Feeling excited, I packed all my Afgan's CDs to get his signature at the event.

On that bright and sunny Saturday morning, the radio station was full of Afganism (that's how Afgan's fans are called). They sat on the chairs prepared inside the radio station's lobby. Some stood in rows in the front yard of the radio station. A spot inside a lobby was prepared with a mini stage for Afgan's singing performance and a table for Afgan to sign Afganism's memorabilia. Finally, after about 40 or 50 minutes wait, Afgan showed up from inside the radio station. He smiled and waved to all Afganism who had been waiting excitedly saying, "Good morning. How are you all?" The crowd went crazy. The shouts sounded like a mix of "Fine, thank you" and screams of Afgan's name.

Then, he started the event by singing his hit single "Dia dia dia". Afganism went even crazier; they sang along with him throughout the song. Of course, I did too. I couldn't take my eyes off this amazing singer who had released three albums. When he was finished with the song, the host announced that it was time for autographing the memorabilia. I prepared my CDs and began to stand in the line. When I arrived at the table, I was speechless. It was unreal just seeing him that close. I thought it was really cool seeing him like that because he really just felt like a normal person, which was awesome. He asked my name so that he could write it on the CD to say "To Mia, Love Afgan". He was also very friendly, so I didn't feel too nervous when I had a chance to take pictures with him. He was just an amazing person. That was one of the best days in my personal life history.

Questions:

1. How did the writer feel when she knew that Afgan was coming to town?
2. Did the writer want to see the concert?
3. When and where was the meet-and-greet event?
4. What is Afganism?
5. How did the fans wait for Afgan?
6. What did Afgan do when he showed up in the lobby?
7. How did the fans react when Afgan sang his hit single?
8. How did the writer feel when she finally got the turn to get Afgan's signature?
9. Did she feel nervous?
10. What is the writer's opinion about the meet-and-greet event?
11. Why do you think people like Afgan?

12. Is there something in the text that is not relevant to your life?
Why?
13. Have you heard or read a text about a similar event?

	Event 2:
	Event 3:
	Event 4:
	Event 5:
	Event 6:
	Event 7:
	Event 8:
	Etc.
Reorientation (stating personal comments about the events)	I felt.....

REFLECTION

At the end of this chapter, ask yourself the following questions to know how well you have learned.

1. Do you know how to tell or write a recount (past events)?
2. Do you give information about who, where, and when at the beginning?
3. Do you tell or write the events in the order they happened?
4. Do you have personal comments to end the recount?
5. Do you know the type of sentence patterns that you can use to tell about the past events?

If your answer is 'no' to one of these questions, see your teacher and discuss with him/her on how to make you understand and be able to tell or write about past events.

FURTHER ACTIVITIES

Think about an interesting activity that you did last week. Can you retell that activity to your friends?

READING

Task 1: Reading Comprehension

As you know on every 10 November we all celebrate Heroes Days. Why do you think the Heroes Day took that special date to commemorate our heroes' sacrifice? Discuss with your partners and come to a conclusion why the date has become special. After that, read through the passage and check whether your conclusion is the same as the reason stated in the text.

On 10 November, Indonesia celebrates Hari Pahlawan or Heroes Day in remembrance of the Battle of Surabaya which started on that very date in the year 1945. The bloody battle took place because Indonesians refused to surrender their weaponry to British army. British Army at that time was part of the Allied Forces. The defiant Bung Tomo is the well-known revolutionary leader who played a very important role in this battle.

It all started because of a misunderstanding between British troops in Jakarta and those in Surabaya, under the command of Brigadier A.W.WS. Mallaby. Brigadier Mallaby already had an agreement with Governor of East Java Mr. Surya. The agreement stated that British would not ask Indonesian troops and militia to surrender their weapons.

However, a British plane from Jakarta dropped leaflets all over Surabaya. The leaflet told Indonesians to do otherwise on 27 October 1945. This action angered the Indonesian troops and militia leaders because they felt betrayed.

On 30 October 1945, Brigadier Mallaby was killed as he was approaching the British troops' post near Jembatan Merah or Red Bridge, Surabaya. There were many reports about the death, but it was widely believed that the Brigadier was murdered by Indonesian militia. Looking at this situation, Lieutenant General Sir Philip Christison brought in reinforcements to siege the city.

In the early morning of 10 November 1945, British troops began to advance into Surabaya with cover from both naval and air bombardment. Although the Indonesians defended the city heroically, the city was conquered within 3 days and the whole battle lasted for 3 weeks. In total, between 6,000 and 16,000 Indonesians died while casualties on the British side were about 600 to 2000.

Battle of Surabaya caused Indonesia to lose weaponry which hampered the country's independence struggle. However, the battle provoked Indonesian and international mass to rally for the country's independence which made this battle especially important for Indonesian national revolution.

Adapted from: <http://www.globalindonesianvoices.com/17298/hari-pahlawan-battle-of-surabaya-the-story-behind-indonesias-heroes-day/>

Task 2: Answer the following questions briefly based on the text above.

1. What is the passage about?
2. When did the battle take place?
3. Where did it happen?
4. What caused the battle? Draw a diagram that shows chronologically the events that led to the battle.
5. What do think about the Indonesian military power compared to that of the British army at that time?
6. What made the Indonesians dare to face the British army military aggression?
7. Did the Indonesian lose or win the battle? Why do you think so?
8. How did the battle influence the national revolution at that time?
9. Who was the prominent figure in the battle? What did he do?
10. Indonesia had gone through many battles. Why do you think the date of the Battle of Surabaya is used as a momentum to commemorate our hero's contribution?
11. Describe in one word the Indonesians who defended their city at that time.
12. Do you think that the information in the text is clear?
13. Have you read other texts that tell about similar events? What are they?

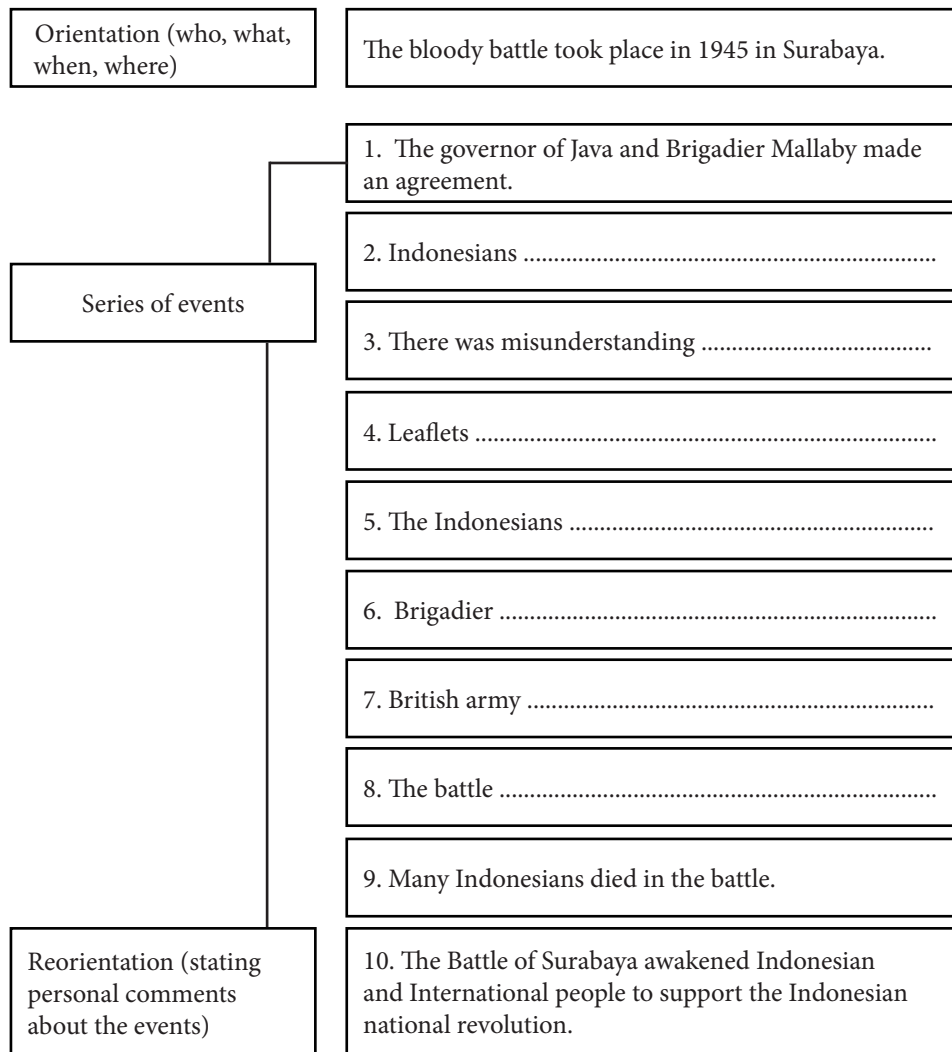

TEXT STRUCTURE

Recounts record a series of events in the order in which they occurred. There are several types of recounts, for example, diaries, letters/postcards, journals, autobiographies and biographies, or anything related to histories (historical recounts). In this chapter, you are studying historical recounts. Do you know how a historical recount is told or written? Similar to other types of recounts, historical recounts usually start with orientation, followed with a series of events, and ends with a reorientation. The orientation part include information about who, what, when, and where. The series of events are presented in the order they really happened. The recount ends with a reorientation which states personal comments about the events.

Now, together with your partner, complete the following sentences that show how The Battle of Surabaya happened.

VOCABULARY

Fill in the blanks with the right word. Don't forget to change the verbs into past tense when necessary.

LISTENING

Your teacher is going to read you an experience of a boy who had to go out of Surabaya when the city was surrounded by the British Army. Listen carefully. You may take notes if necessary. Then, answer the teacher's questions.

SPEAKING

Task 1: Read the following dialog. Take turns reading it.

- Ami : Riza, look! That heroic monument stands high and strong.
Riza : Hmm.... It is a remembrance for us to our heroes' struggle on this country.
Ami : Yeah, many of them became casualties of the war.
Riza : I had an unforgettable experience there.
Ami : Really? What was it?
Riza : When I was in Junior High School, my school held a program called "Keep our city clean and green!"
Ami : What did you do?
Riza : My schoolmates, my teachers, and I rallied in the monument area at 6 a.m and began to clean the area around the monument until it's clean and tidy.
Ami : That's a very good program.
Riza : Yes, it was. We also planted some trees around it.

Task 2: Sharing an experience

Do you still remember the boy's experience you just listened to? You can make a new recount text based on the boy's experience, treating it as if it were your own experience.

Imagine that you were the boy who had to continue the trip after staying overnight in the village. Tell your imaginary experience based on the last part of the story. Do that in groups of four students. Follow the instructions below:

1. Remember the story you just listened to.
2. Retell the story. Each member of the group takes turns saying one sentence.

3. The first student says one sentence to begin retelling the story. (The first sentence should serve as the orientation).
4. The second student continues saying the next sentence containing the next event.
5. The third student goes on saying the following event and so does the fourth student.
6. Continue doing that until the story is finished.
7. After that, based on the last part of the story, the group begins to make up the group's own story.
8. Do that by taking turns saying one sentence.
9. When the teacher says that the time is up the group stop doing the activity.
10. Present 'your experience' during the battle of Surabaya in front of the class.

Task 3: Speaking Game

Play this game in groups of four students. Divide each group into halves. Each half opposes the other half. Now do the following things:

- a. Read the Battle of Surabaya again carefully.
- b. Choose the words that you like. You must know the meaning of the chosen words.
- c. Then, take turns telling your opposing partners to make sentences based on the words that you chose. Those who can make communicative sentences get score. Each communicative sentence will get 100. Don't forget to count the minutes used to make it. You can decide the length of time for making one sentence.
- d. The winners are those who can make more sentences in less time.

WRITING

Write a recount text. You can rewrite the chronology of the battle of Surabaya. If you choose that, read the passage again and the task on text structure on page 124, then close the book. Now try to rewrite the chronology of the events in the Battle of Surabaya using your own words.

You can also rewrite the experience of the boy you listened to (LISTENING on page 129), or the one your group created (SPEAKING task 3 on page 130), or write your own experience. The experience can be a real or an imaginary one.

Study again the following arrangement of ideas in a recount text to help you write the recount text:

Components	What you write	Write your draft here
orientation	What happened Who was involved Where it happened When it happened?
body	A series of events told in chronological order. Write a new paragraph for each event.
reorientation	Your comment about the event.

REFLECTION

At the end of this chapter, ask yourself the following questions to know how effective your learning process is.

1. Do you know how to tell or write a historical recount?
2. Do you give information about who, where, and when at the beginning?
3. Do you tell or write the events in the order they happened?
4. Do you have personal comments to end the historical recount?
5. Can you explain the function of a recount text?
6. Where do you think you can find a recount text?

B.J. HABIBIE

Source: <http://peperonity.com/go/sites/mview/effendy/26817732/26817810>
Picture 10.2

Bacharuddin Jusuf Habibie known as BJ. Habibie was born on 25 June 1936. He was the Third President of the Republic of Indonesia (1998–1999). Habibie was born in Parepare, South Sulawesi Province to Alwi Abdul Jalil Habibie and R.A. Tuti Marini Puspowardojo. His father was an agriculturist from Gorontalo of Bugis descent and his mother was a Javanese noblewoman from Yogyakarta. His parents met while studying in Bogor. When he was 14 years old, Habibie's father died.

Following his father's death, Habibie continued his studies in Jakarta and then in 1955 moved to Germany. In 1960, Habibie received a degree in engineering in Germany, giving him the title Diplom-Ingenieur.

He remained in Germany as a research assistant under Hans Ebner at the Lehrstuhl und Institut für Leichtbau, RWTH Aachen to conduct research for his doctoral degree.

In 1962, Habibie returned to Indonesia for three months on sick leave. During this time, he was reacquainted with Hasri Ainun, the daughter of R. Mohamad Besari. The two married on 12 May 1962, returning to Germany shortly afterwards. Habibie and his wife settled in Aachen for a short period before moving to Oberforstbach. In May 1963 they had their first son, Ilham Akbar Habibie, and later another son, Thareq Kemal Habibie.

When Habibie's minimum wage salary forced him into part-time work, he found employment with the Automotive Marque Talbot, where he became an advisor. Habibie worked on two projects which received funding from Deutsche Bundesbahn. Due to his work with Makosh, the head of train constructions offered his position to Habibie upon his retirement three years later, but Habibie refused.

Habibie did accept a position with Messerschmitt-Bölkow-Blohm in Hamburg. There, he developed theories on thermodynamics, construction, and aerodynamics known as the Habibie Factor, Habibie Theorem, and Habibie Method, respectively. He worked for Messerschmit on the development of the Airbus A-300B aircraft. In 1974, he was promoted to vice president of the company.

In 1974, Suharto requested Habibie to return to Indonesia as part of Suharto's drive to develop the country. Habibie initially served as a special assistant to Ibnu Sutowo, the CEO of the state oil company Pertamina. Two years later, in 1976, Habibie was made Chief Executive Officer of the new state-owned enterprise Industri Pesawat Terbang Nusantara (IPTN). In 1978, he was appointed as Minister of Research and Technology. Habibie was elected vice president in March 1998. On 21 May 1998, Suharto publicly announced his resignation and Habibie was immediately sworn in as president. Habibie's government stabilized the economy in the face of the Asian financial crisis and the chaos of the last few months of Suharto's presidency.

Since relinquishing the presidency, Habibie has spent more time in Germany than in Indonesia. However, he has also been active as a presidential adviser during Susilo Bambang Yudoyono's presidency. In September 2006, he released a book called Detik-Detik Yang Menentukan: Jalan Panjang Indonesia Menuju Demokrasi (Decisive Moments: Indonesia's Long Road Towards Democracy). The book recalled the events of May 1998.

READING COMPREHENSION

CUT NYAK DHIEN

Cut Nyak Dhien was a leader of the Acehese guerrilla forces during the Aceh War. She was born in Lampadang in 1848. Following the death of her husband Teuku Umar, she led guerrilla actions against the Dutch for 25 years. She was awarded the title of Indonesian National Hero on 2 May 1964 by the Indonesian government.

Cut Nyak Dhien was born into an Islamic aristocratic family in Aceh Besar. Her father, Teuku Nanta Setia, was a member of the ruling Ulèë Balang aristocratic class in VI mukim, and her mother was also from an aristocratic family. She was educated in religion and household matters. She was renowned for her beauty, and many men proposed to marry her. Finally, she married Teuku Cik Ibrahim Lamnga, the son of an aristocratic family, when she was twelve.

On 26 March 1873, the Dutch declared war on Aceh. In November 1873, during the Second Aceh Expedition, the Dutch successfully captured VI mukim in 1873, followed by the Sultan's Palace in 1874.

In 1875, Cut Nyak Dhien and her baby, along with other mothers, were evacuated to a safer location while her husband Ibrahim Lamnga fought to reclaim VI mukim. Lamnga died in action on June 29, 1878. Hearing this, Cut Nyak Dhien was enraged and swore to destroy the Dutch.

Some time later, Teuku Umar proposed to marry her. Learning that Teuku Umar would allow her to fight, she accepted his proposal. They were married in 1880. This greatly boosted the morale of Aceh armies in their fight against Dutch. Teuku Umar and Cut Nyak Dhien had a daughter, Cut Gambang.

The war continued, and the Acehnese declared Holy War against the Dutch, and were engaged in guerrilla warfare. Undersupplied, Teuku Umar surrendered to the Dutch forces on September 30, 1893 along with 250 of his men. The Dutch army welcomed him and appointed him as a commander, giving him the title of Teuku Umar Johan Pahlawan. However, Teuku Umar secretly planned to betray the Dutch. Two years later Teuku Umar set out to assault Aceh, but he instead deserted with his troops taking with them heavy equipment, weapons, and ammunition, using these supplies to help the Acehnese. This is recorded in Dutch history as “Het verraad van Teukoe Oemar” (the treason of Teuku Umar).

The Dutch general Johannes Benedictus van Heutsz sent a spy to Aceh. Teuku Umar was killed during a battle when the Dutch launched a surprise attack on him in Meulaboh. When Cut Gambang cried over his death, Cut Nyak Dhien slapped her and then she hugged her and said: “As Acehnese women, we may not shed tears for those who have been martyred.”

After her husband died, Cut Nyak Dhien continued to resist the Dutch with her small army until its destruction in 1901, as the Dutch adapted their tactics to the situation in Aceh. Furthermore, Cut Nyak Dhien suffered from nearsightedness and arthritis as she got older. The number of her troops was also decreasing and they suffered from lack of supplies.

One of her troops, Pang Laot, told the Dutch the location of her headquarters in Beutong Le Sageu. The Dutch attacked, catching Dhien and her troops by surprise. Despite desperately fighting back, Dhien was captured. Her daughter, Cut Gambang, escaped and continued the resistance. Dhien was brought to Banda Aceh and her myopia and arthritis slowly healed, but in the end she was exiled to Sumedang, West Java because the Dutch were afraid she would mobilize the resistance of Aceh people. She died on 6 November 1908.

READING COMPREHENSION

Task 1:

Read the text carefully.

Once upon a time there was an old couple who didn't have a child. They lived in a small house near the village forest. "Please give us a child," they asked God everyday.

One day, from the household Shinto altar, they heard a cute cry, "Waa! Waa!"

Source: http://2.bp.blogspot.com/-t7R0kv6itAs/VVy47i9CqyI/AAAAAAAAADk/0BI7mv0bwTk/s1600/IMG_20150520_232408.jpg
Picture 12.2

They looked and saw a crying baby who looked just like a little finger. "This child must be a gift from God. Thanks to God!"

"We will call this child 'Issumboshi,'" they said.

They raised Issumboshi with much care, but Issumboshi never grew bigger.

"Hey, Issumboshi, do you want to be eaten by a frog?" Issumboshi was always being bullied by the children of the village and often went home feeling unhappy.

Grandmother would make some big rice balls and encourage him. "Eat a lot, and grow up quickly," Grandmother said.

One day, Issumboshi said, “I will go to the capital to study and become a respectable person. Then I will come back.” Grandfather and Grandmother were worried about him, but Issumboshi’s mind would not be changed. At once they began to prepare for his trip.

Issumboshi sheathed a needle sword in a straw case, put on a cup for a sedge hat, and started out with a chopstick staff, in high spirits.

“I’m going now,” Issumboshi said.

“Is he safe? With such a small body?” Grandfather and Grandmother asked as they saw him off.

Issumboshi went on the trip with a big wish in a small body.

... ..

At last Issumboshi reached the capital city and anchored under the bridge. Then he climbed up to the railing and viewed the town.

“There is a fine palace over there. I shall ask them at once.”

At long last Issumboshi arrived at the palace.

“Excuse me, but I want to meet the feudal lord.”

The lord came to the door, “What? Who’s there?”

“Here I am, at your feet.”

“Oh. How small! Why do you want to meet me?”

“Please let me be your retainer.”

“I wonder if your very small body can do anything.”

“I’ll stay in your pocket and guard you from all harm.” When Issumboshi said so, a bee came buzzing by. “Yhaa!” Issumboshi yelled, stabbing the bee.

“Bravo! I employ you. It would be good if you became the Princess’s man.”

Picture 12.3

“Oh! What a cute fellow he is!” said the Princess, putting Issumboshi on her palm.

“I will defend you upon my life,” said Issumboshi.

The Princess liked Issumboshi, and she taught him reading, writing, and various studies. Further, Issumboshi practiced fencing very hard in order to be strong.

One day the Princess went out to worship at the Kiyomizu Temple. Suddenly there was a strong wind, and some demons appeared. The leader of the demons tried to grab the Princess. "Help me!" she screamed. Issumboshi tried to help her, but the demon caught him and threw him into his mouth. Issumboshi, who was swallowed, jabbed and jabbed the demon's stomach. The demon rolled over and spat out Issumboshi.

Issumboshi jumped at the demon and stabbed his eyes. The remaining demons were frightened. They ran away in great haste, but one demon, who was left behind, trembled while holding the magic hammer.

"Do you want me to stab your eyes, too?" Issumboshi asked.

"Please, don't. This is the magic hammer that will grant you a wish. I give it to you, so please spare me." And saying this, he ran off in a hurry.

"Thank you, Issumboshi. You have saved my life," the Princess said.

"Princess, please wave this magic hammer and make a wish that I may become big," said Issumboshi. The Princess waved it and asked, "May Issumboshi become big!"

And then, strangely, before her eyes, Issumboshi began to grow. He grew into a nice young man. They went back to the palace, and the Princess asked the King to let her marry Issumboshi.

The Princess and Issumboshi then got married, and they invited Grandfather and Grandmother to live with them in the palace. They lived happily ever after.

THE LEGEND OF MALIN KUNDANG

A long time ago, in a small village near the beach in West Sumatra lived a woman and her son, Malin Kundang. Malin Kundang and his mother had to live hard because his father had passed away when he was a baby. Malin Kundang was a healthy, diligent, and strong boy. He usually went to sea to catch fish. After getting fish he would bring it to his mother, or sell the caught fish in the town.

One day, when Malin Kundang was sailing, he saw a merchant's ship being raided by a band of pirates. With his bravery, Malin Kundang helped the merchant defeat the pirates. To thank him, the merchant allowed Malin Kundang to sail with him. Malin Kundang agreed in the hope to get a better life. He left his mother alone.

Many years later, Malin Kundang became wealthy. He had a huge ship and a lot of crews who worked loading trading goods. He was also married to a beautiful woman. When he was sailing on his trading journey, his ship landed on a coast near a small village. The local people recognized that it was Malin Kundang, a boy from the area. The news ran fast in the town; "Malin Kundang has become rich and now he is here".

An old woman, who was Malin Kundang's mother, ran to the beach to meet the new rich merchant. She wanted to hug him to release her sadness of being lonely after a long time. When his mother came near him, Malin Kundang who was with his beautiful wife and his ship crews denied that she was his mother. She had pleaded Malin Kundang to look at her and admit that she was her mother. But he kept refusing to do it and yelling at her. At last Malin Kundang said to her "Enough, old woman! I have never had a mother like you, a dirty and ugly woman!" After that he ordered his crews to set sail to leave the old woman who was then full of sadness and anger. Finally, feeling enraged, she cursed Malin Kundang that he would turn into a stone if he didn't apologize to her. Malin Kundang just laughed and set sail. Suddenly a thunderstorm came in the quiet sea, wrecking his huge ship. He was thrown out to a small island. It was really too late for him to avoid his curse; he had turned into a stone.

STRONG WIND

Once there was a great warrior named Strong Wind. He lived with his sister in a tent by the sea. Strong Wind was able to make himself _____(1). His sister could see him, but no one else could. He had said he would marry the first woman who could see him as he came at the end of the day.

Many women came up to his tent to watch for him. When his sister saw him coming, she would ask, “Do you see him?”

Each girl would answer, “Oh, yes! I see him!”

Then Strong Wind’s sister would ask, “What is he pulling his sled with?”

And then the girls would answer, “with a _____ (2)” or “with a wooden pole.”

Then Strong Wind’s sister would know that they were lying, because their guesses were wrong.

A chief lived in a village. His wife had died, and he had three daughters. One was much younger than the other two. She was gentle, kind and beautiful, but her sisters were _____ (3) of her and treated her badly. They cut off her long black hair and they made her wear rags. They also burned her face with coals so that she would be ugly. They lied to their father that she did these things to herself. But she remained calm and _____ (4).

The two older sisters also went to try and see Strong Wind. When he was coming, Strong Wind’s sister asked them, “Do you see him?”

“Oh, yes! I see him!” Each of them answered.

“What is his bow made out of?” asked Strong Wind’s sister.

“Out of iron,” answered one. “Out of wood,” answered the other.

“You have not see him,” said Strong Wind’s sister.

Strong Wind himself heard them and knew that they had lied. They went into the tent, but still they could not see him. They went home very sad.

One day the youngest daughter went to try and see Strong Wind. She was wearing _____ (5), and burn covered her face. People laughed at her, but she kept going. When she got to Strong Wind’s tent she waited.

GRAMMAR REVIEW

THE PAST PERFECT TENSE

Look at these sentences taken from the reading text. Focus your attention on the verbs in italics.

1. He had said he would marry the first woman who could see him.
2. A chief lived in a village. His wife had died.
3. Strong Wind himself heard them and knew that they had lied.
4. Strong Wind's sister was surprised because the girl had told the truth.
5. Then Strong Wind's sister knew that the girl could really see him. He had let her see him because she had told the truth.

The use of Past Perfect:

1. Completed Action Before Something in the Past

The Past Perfect expresses the idea that something occurred before another action in the past. It can also show that something happened before a specific time in the past.

Example:

I had met the beautiful girl before I came to this city.

2. Duration before something in the Past (non-continuous verb)

The Past Perfect Tense can be used to show that something started in the past and continued up until another action in the past.

Example:

By the time we finished our study, we had been in Malang for five years.

Collaborative Story Writing

Your teacher will assign you to sit in a big circle and ask you to write a story collaboratively with your classmates. Follow her/his instructions:

Step 1:

- Prepare a piece of paper. Choose a story to write.
- Write a sentence to start your story. Think of a sentence that can be easily continued by your classmate.
- Give your paper to your classmate on your right and get another piece of paper from your classmate on your left.
- Read your classmate's sentence. Continue writing another sentence. Try to connect your sentence and your classmate's. Then, give the paper to your classmate on your right.
- Continue the activities until your paper arrives back to you.

Step 2:

- Read the story that you've written with your classmates. What do you think? What's good and not good about it?

Step 3:

- Rewrite your story. Don't forget to include connecting words and phrases. Use clear references, too.

REFLECTION

At the end of this chapter, ask yourself the following questions to know how effective your learning process is.

1. Have you been able to understand the structure of a story?
2. Can you write a short story?

If your answer is 'no' to one of these questions, see your teacher and discuss with him/her on how to make you understand and able to talk about a song.

FURTHER ACTIVITIES

Read other stories available in your school library. You can also read them from the internet.

“ My philosophy is that not only are you responsible for your life, but doing the best at this moment puts you in the best place for the next moment. ”
